Organiser: Lyndsey. The team: Jackie, Leanne, Amy, Caroline, Caron, Ali, India, Sophie, Carly, Marie, Sandi, Tasha, Maggie, Sam.

Itinerary

FRIDAY - Arrive at Highfields Lodge at approximately 3pm. Your name will be on the door of the room you will be staying in. At approximately 3.30pm Tesco with arrive with our weekend order.

The weekend will begin with a couple of hours' chill-out session in the hot tub and pool and we can decide who will be taking on the cooking, clearing and cleaning duties for the weekend's meals (not including Molly).

Friday evening we aim to eat about 7pm and cleared by 7.45pm

COCKTAIL MAKING WORKSHOP – 8PM

The service will arrive at about 7.30pm to set up ready for the workshop at 8pm. It's a two-hour workshop .

- Each guest receives a champagne cocktail on arrival.
- Introduction from one of our leading mixologists (Brief history and facts of the classics).
- Whilst enjoying some of our unique cocktails we split you into groups, allocating you with your own bar and mixology equipment.
- After we demonstrate and teach you how to mix, muddle, build and shake you then get to make your own! As well as making (and crucially drinking) some world famous cocktails you will be picking up skills on free-pouring and basic bar flaring (shaker spinning and bottle juggling) along the way.
- To showcase your new talents, you have the opportunity to express your bar flaring skills in a mix-off! Each group will receive selected spirits, liquors, and juices and a range of necessary ingredients to design, name and make your own personalised cocktail. You are then judged by our own mixologist on creativity, presentation and flavour.
- To finish, every guest will receive a memento certificate and the winning group shall receive a stainless steel Manhattan cocktail shaker per guest!

SATURDAY – A lazy morning and brunch at 11am with chilling out around the pool .

LIFE DRAWING CLASS – 2PM

You don't have to know anything about drawing or to have any experience of life drawing classes, to enjoy this fun and exciting art class. I've been teaching life drawing to beginners for many years and your hens will be amazed to see their first silly sketches actually improve into fairly decent efforts. This a nude but tasteful and fun session. The tutor will provide pads and pencils. We will draw Molly (clothes on) and she will be able to keep our drawings as a keep-sake.

After Life Drawing classes we can just chill have a few nibbles before getting ready for tonight's themed dinner. Don't forget to bring your Audrey Hepburn 'Holly Golightly' little black dress, long black evening gloves, sunglasses and your hair-up do stuff.

FOUR COURSE EVENING DINNER

Caterers will arrive at 6pm and set-up ready for 7.30pm four-course dining. After dinner we will retire to the front room for to watch Breakfast at Tiffany's, play our Audrey Hepburn quiz and hand out our secret Santa type presents for Molly. Just remember don't spend more than £5.

SUNDAY – Breakfast 9 AM

PAMPER LADIES - 10.30AM

The beauticians will arrive at 10 am to set up. We will have 30 minutes of relaxing time with your chosen treatment. Molly will have 60 minute treatment on us as planned. The will be cleared and gone by 3.30pm.

AFTERNOON TEA – 4PM

At approximately 3.15pm the caterer will arrive with afternoon tea. She will lay the table with vintage crockery and serve a traditional cream tea. The caterer will leave at approximately 5pm.

We have the rest of evening to chill and watch a few DVDs and play card games etc. Or, if it's a nice evening head for the local pub.

MONDAY – 9AM

Breakfast together. Clear and tidy, put out the rubbish and re-cycling . Leave no later than 11am.

A FOND FAREWELL AND SEE YOU AT THE WEDDING!
